LIVE SOCIETY NEWS

The Argus is always pleased to receive advance notices of society events that have not been printed; also news of those that have taken place. The latter should be in the office not later than Wednesday noon. Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Holcombe entertained a number of their friends at a "500" party Tuesday evening. The Needlecraft club held a very enjoyable St. Patrick's party at the home of Mrs. Roy Smith this afternoon. The Music club will meet this week at the home of Mrs. Jaquish. A Kroeger and Robyn program will be rendered. The C. M. D. club, a social club which was recently formed by a number of the Pythian Sisters for their lodge members and also the other Knights wives, will meet next Tuesday at the home of Mrs. J. D. Connors. A very pleasant meeting of the Kensington club was held at the home of Mrs. Cayou last Thursday afternoon when twelve ladies were present and spent the afternoon with their needlework. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Wilson in two weeks. A surprise party was given last Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford in honor of the 84th birthday of "Uncle Tommy Barton." The friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Hager early in the evening and "Uncle Tommy" was certainly surprised when the crowd came in. A musical and literary program was carried out. When refreshments were served "Uncle Tommy" was presented with a huge Birthday Cake bearing 84 candles. Over a hundred guests were present and they will long remember the pleasant party. A social meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held Tuesday, March 16th, at the home of Rev. Pratt. The following program was rendered: Opening number. Music National Constitutional Prohibition. Rev. C. C. Mr. and Mrs. Gus Reich. Notice of Good-Road Day. Notice is hereby given that Tuesday the 30th day of March, 1915, is designated as good roads day throughout the County of Malheur. It is desired that every resident of the county will give this day in work on the roads in their immediate vicinity. GEO. W. McKNIGHT, County Judge.

made with the sea mussel. Roseburg citizens are out to raise a bonus to induce the building of a new sawmill. Kendall Brothers of Pittsburg will build a railroad to their land holdings, it is believed. F. P. Phillips, of The Dalles, has been appointed district sealer of the northern district of the weights and measures department by State Treasurer Kay, head of the department. The first annual Lake county farmers' and home-makers' short course, given under the auspices of the extension division of the Oregon agricultural college, was held at Lakeview this week. During the calendar year 1914 the forest service reforested 1074 acres of burned over land in Oregon. This required planting 600,000 trees. It is expected that three times that many will be set out during 1915. The Oregon lumber associations are endeavoring to have the war department specifications for mill work on the quarters at Balboa, in the Panama canal zone, designated as Douglas fir instead of cypress as now designated. To stimulate interest among the pupils of the Baker schools in gardening, domestic science, manual training and the like, City Superintendent of Schools A. C. Strange is laying plans for the formation of industrial clubs. Many farmers about Salem have plowed up their clover fields in order to plant wheat and the increase in acreage sown to that grain will be great in this section on account of the war prices. Prospects are encouraging for a good wheat crop. The Hillsboro commercial club has completed arrangements to hold a series of monthly market days for farmers to sell stock and other personal property at public auction or private sale. They are to be held monthly, the first date being March 20. A. A. Lee of Albany was elected president of the Interstate Association of Young Men's Christian Association, including Oregon and Idaho, at the annual session at Newberg. Carl Wallace of Salem was elected vice president and H. B. Leonard of Eugene, secretary. Fifty-eight accidents, one of them fatal, were reported during the week to Labor Commissioner Hoff. The fatal accident occurred at Clatskanie, where Holson B. Lyda was killed while engaged in logging. Eighteen persons were injured in the employ of railroads, while 19 were hurt in logging or in lumber and shingle mills. BODY OF JACK LANE FOUND NEAR HERE The body of Jack Lane, who was drowned at Nyssa, January 29, was found Tuesday morning south of the Ontario-Fruitland bridge about two miles. A farmer who was working on a dam along the river on the Idaho side discovered the body as it was floating along the bank about fifty or seventy-five feet out. After recovering the body the proper authorities were notified and an inquest was held. The body was in an advanced stage of decay but was fully identified by four of his fellow workers on the steelgang. The remains were taken charge of by undertakers of Payette and arrangements are being made to ship them to his parents at Tunkhannock, Pennsylvania. Mr. Lane it will be remembered was drowned while working on the I. M. Draper steelgang at the railroad bridge south of Nyssa. All efforts to recover his body failed and a couple of weeks ago a search was made from Nyssa to Ontario but nothing was discovered until Tuesday. There was a meeting of the stockholders of Fairview Drain ditch, Saturday, March 13, in the city hall. The meeting was for the election of directors and other business, but on account of there not being enough shares represented, directors were not elected. However, an assessment of fifty cents per share was levied, thirty of which is to be paid within thirty days and the other twenty whenever needed. The money raised will be expended in sluicing out the main line of the ditch and other improvement work. The meeting adjourned until next Saturday, March 20, when the election of directors will take place. Echoes From the High School. Possibly some of the citizens of Ontario are not aware that the Ontario High School has a base-ball team. However, they will not remain in the darkness long, for with the help of Mr. Clemo the team will soon be in the limelight. The members are very attractive this year in their new suits. A schedule has not been arranged yet, but a game will probably be played with either Fruitland or Nyssa in two weeks. The players do not lack interest or enthusiasm and their spirit and good work was shown in the practice game with a "Scrub Team" a few nights ago when the O. H. S. squad were victorious, the score showing eight points in their favor. A few of the members of the team are from the grades. The lineup being as follows: Purcell Catcher Hickey and Cronin Pitchers Trow 1st base Fitzgerald 2nd base Marsden 3rd base Holland Short stop Lawrence rightfield Brown leftfield Madden Centerfield There are also several subs. We are glad to have Irene Wortha and Ruby Waldron among us again. Miss Estol Doty is absent this week. Much enthusiasm has been shown and the interclass meet will take place sometime in April. We also expect to hold a meet here with Baker and Weiser. The High School is fortunate in securing two new pupils, Flossie Keller, who is a freshman and her sister, Maud Keller, who is taking up the Commercial course. They are from Illinois. Monday morning under the direction of Miss Clarke, the Junior and Senior English classes held a very enjoyable recitation. The recitation hour was taken up with the study of Burns' songs. Rena Adam and Earl Griffin sang a number of our favorite songs, and a discussion of Burns' songs in general followed. Preparations for the Carnival are well under way. The Chairmen of all the committees have been appointed and most of them have appointed their assistants.
